

Volunteer Court Worker

Are you interested in social justice issues?

Do you want to assist women experiencing domestic and family violence?

Do you want to gain valuable, practical experience working in a court environment?

Are you currently studying Law, Human Services or Social Work and are looking to get some real world experience that will be of benefit when job seeking?

What's involved?

DVAC currently runs a court support program at the Ipswich Magistrates Court. This program operates every Monday for the Domestic Violence court and we need volunteers to assist us in the many aspects of the program.

This involves:

- Ensuring the smooth running of the court program during Domestic Violence call overs/mentions
- Maintaining court schedules
- Engaging with the women accessing Court Support and provide support and /or information
- Other administrative functions.

Applying

To apply for a Volunteer Court Worker role, you will need to send an expression of interest to either info@dvac.org.au or directly to the Court Advocate at courtadvocate@dvac.org.au.

Please include information about why you wish volunteer, if you have a blue card*, and any other information that you think is relevant and would assist your application.

Next Steps

Once you have sent through an expression of interest, DVAC will be in touch to arrange an interview. This is an opportunity for DVAC to assess your suitability for the program, but also for you to find out more.

*Please note, DVAC will assist you to apply for a Volunteer Blue Card if you don't currently have one. DVAC will also undertake a Police Check.
